CLOSING REMARKS—Shawn White

CLINE E SLAUBAUGH

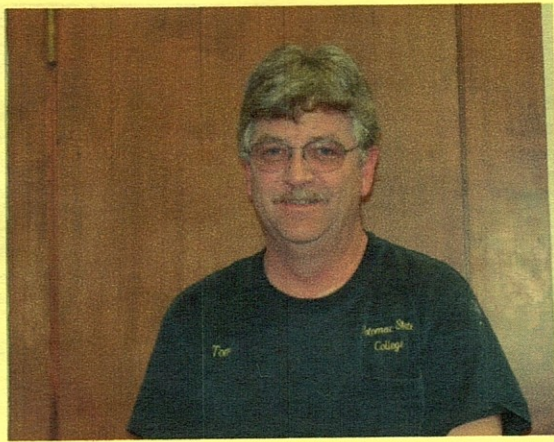

Cline was born in Horse Shoe Run, WV and graduated from Aurora High School in 1970. He worked for various contractors remodeling and building houses in Horse Shoe Run and the area, Parkersburg, and Keyser from 1970-1982.

At Potomac State College he has worked general maintenance, plumbing and heating, carpenter, and is currently a Lead Trades Specialist I.

Cline enjoys hunting, fishing, and ATV riding. He is a member of the Church of Christ and the AFT Union.

An interesting fact about Cline is he served in the Army National Guard for 15 years.

Cline is married to Susan, wife of 32 years, and has sons Randy and Shawn. Randy and wife Jeanna have two children Tyler and Tierra. Shawn and wife Marla have two children Dylan and Brooke.

THOMAS WRIGHT ROTRUCK

Tom graduated from Bruce High School and Allegany County Vo-Tech Center in 1976. He has driven a truck for the Fairfax Gravel & Sand Company, worked at a brakeshoe plant at Abex in Winchester and worked for Bill Haines as a carpenter building homes. An interesting fact about Tom is in 1986 he started his own business Rotruck Roofing and continues to operate it as well as work full-time at the college.

At Potomac State College, Tom began employment as a farm worker from 1982-2001. In 2001 he became a Building Service Worker. In 2006 he received the Acts of Kindness Award and in 2007 was nominated for the Outstanding Classified Employee of the Year.

Tom is a trustee and usher at the Danville Community Church. He enjoys hunting, 4-wheeling, hiking, and spending time with family.

He is married to Twila Sue Rotruck and has a son Thomas Wright Rotruck, Jr., and a daughter Misty Dawn Kesner and a granddaughter Alaina Rose, who is 5 1/2 months old.

MARY PATRICE MURPHY

"Potomac State has been part of my life for as long as I can remember. Growing up across the street, I thought of the campus as an extension of our yard. My parents, Dr. Allen Murphy and Jane Murphy worked many years at PSC and I had the opportunity to be included in many of the events, such as these banquets, and get to know the faculty and staff. They were and still are a wonderful group that I am honored and proud to have served for these years."

Mary is a graduate of Keyser High School, Potomac State College and West Virginia University. In 1981 she received her Bachelor of Science –Business Administration Degree from West Virginia University. She was salutatorian of her high school class and a Cum Laude graduate at WVU. She received a 15 year service award with Barnes & Noble College Booksellers.

Two interesting facts about Mary is she worked for the State of WV Forestry Division as a summer gypsy moth trapper and she has been skydiving in New Zealand.

Mary enjoys reading, walking with the dog, enjoying and appreciating nature. Family include her mother Jane Murphy, brother Dan and family and sister Tacy and family and her dog, Joe.

KAREN L CAMPBELL

Karen was born in Cumberland, MD and has an A.A. degree from Potomac State College in Secondary Education, a B.A. degree from Fairmont in Business Education, and a M.A. from West Virginia University in Higher Education.

She was an instructor at the Mineral County Vo-Tech Center and a full-time instructor in the Business Education Department from 1975-1981. At PSC she holds the position of Professor of Office Systems Technology, Division Chairperson of Applied Science & Technology and is the WVU RBA Site Coordinator. Previously at PSC she held positions as Interim Dean of Academic Affairs, Assistant Dean, and Division IV Chairperson. Karen has received the PSC Outstanding Professor of the Year 2004-2005 and won the West Virginia Community College Association Award in 1995.

Her husband is John B. Campbell and sons are Clinton B. and Christopher J. Campbell. Other family members present tonight are her father Donald P. Heare and father-in-law and mother-in-law Richard and Margaret Campbell.

An interesting fact about Karen is she likes to float down the Greenbrier River. She also likes spending time with her family, reading, cooking/baking, knitting, camping, birding, traveling, walking Peanut, her dog, and eating lunch with Helen, Linda, and Phil.
